ELKS TO ALLEGHENY.

Wheeling Lodge will Send a Large Delegation on Thursday.
Wheeling lodge No. 28, E. P. O. E., is making extensive preparations for its invasion of Allegheny and the street fair of the lodge at that city next Thursday. Members of the lodge and those of the public desiring to make the trip will leave at 7:15 a. m. via the Pan Handle, arriving at Pittsburgh before 10 o'clock. Accompanying the Wheeling crowd will be Meister's band of twenty-four pieces. The boys will be royally entertained at the fair by the Allegheny Elks. They will return to Wheeling on a special Pan Handle train, leaving at 11:40 p. m., and arriving home about 2 a. m. Tickets for the trip can be obtained from Kraus Bros., Jacob Snyder's Sons or C. R. Tracy. The boys will wear a natty outfit made up of duck trousers, white hat and cane.

Vaudeville To-night.
The week's engagement of the Park Vaudeville Company at the Wheeling Park Casino opens this evening, and the indications are for a successful engagement. Messrs. Hirsch and Reister have spared no expense in securing the best attractions on the road this summer, and the opening performance will justify their claim for something good. Special motors will bring the audience back to the city at the conclusion of each performance.

Wanted Money Only.
Saturday night about 9 o'clock thieves entered Dr. John L. Dickey's country home at Echo Point, formerly Mr. Joseph Spedel's residence, and got away with about $20 in money, which was in a drawer in an upstairs room. They effected an entrance by climbing over the porch and then raising an upper window. They were evidently familiar with the premises and took nothing of value besides the money mentioned.

Fine Upright Piano For Sale.

We have a fine Kranich and Bach Upright Piano, good as new, beautiful Italian Walnut case, three pedals, all modern improvements. Will sell for one-half its original price. Satisfactory reasons will be given why the owner must sell. Piano can be seen at our store. Call or address
F. W. BAUMER CO.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Wheeling Park Casino to-night—Park Vaudeville Company.

The council committee on ordinances is called to meet this evening.

One drunk and a disorderly are on the docket for the consideration of Mayor Sweeney this morning.

The German M. E. Sunday school will picnic to-morrow at Cressap's grove. The Eliza will carry the excursionists.

A caucus of the Republican members of the city council will be held to-night to nominate a candidate for board of public works, to succeed the late B. F. Bachman.

The hearing of "Fatty" Driller and Mrs. Emma Parker, charged with the murder of Louis Dittmore has not yet been set by Justice Rogers. It will likely be held early this week.

The retreat for ladies at Mont de Chantal begins this morning and continues to next Saturday. The Rev. Henry Shandelle, of Georgetown University, will deliver the lectures.

The Franklin Insurance Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent. The German Fire Insurance Company has declared a cash dividend of 2 per cent, payable on demand at the office of the company.

The camp of gypsies which, for several days, has been an attractive spectacle on Wheeling creek, at Pryor's station, has moved out Peters' run. This band of rovers is the largest seen around the vicinity for years.

Hon. Carl Schurz, of New York, former secretary of the Interior in the Hayes cabinet, a German revolutionist of 1848, a general in the Union army in the Rebellion, and the foremost German-American, has accepted honorary membership in the Rhineland Society, of Wheeling.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

United States Senator Nathan B. Scott, of this city, accompanied by Mrs. Scott, returned Saturday from an extended western trip, and they are at home at the Hotel Windsor for a few days. The senator goes to Washington this week on official business in the department, and will return later to spend the summer in Wheeling. He thoroughly enjoyed his trip, which extended over nearly every section of the far west. In the course of a conversation Saturday, Senator Scott advocated a local movement to put the old Hobbs glass house into operation again, and offered to assist financially in a move in that direction.

Said a hotel man last night: "These great combinations of capital and centralizations of industries are hurting the hotel business." In some lines of business one travelling man now visits my house, while a few months ago a score came. Plug tobacco is an instance; only one or two men are now on the road, while twenty or thirty were out a year ago. The same thing applies to starch, cigarettes and many other lines.

Miss Emma Beall, of the Island, leaves to-day on a brief visit to relatives at Glenn's run.

H. A. Wright, J. T. Martin and E. J. Casper are Sistersville people registered at the Howell.

J. H. Velligerette, of Steubenville, was a Sunday visitor in town yesterday.

H. A. Creal and wife, of Steubenville, registered at the Stamm yesterday.

A. L. Jepson was a Mannington citizen at the Windsor yesterday.

F. L. Smith, of Waverly, is at the Grand Central.

A Statement Denied.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 9.—National Committeeman Fred Dilcher, of the United Mine Workers of America, in an open letter to the Express, denies the statement made by the Southern Indiana coal operators that the operators are expected by the miners to pay a two per cent levy on their earnings for the support of the miners' union. After outlining the object and workings of the union, Mr. Dilcher says that instead of seeking to antagonize the operators, the miners' union is striving for a better condition of affairs; the union wants to give operators what is rightfully their right, but will fight to the last ditch for what it considers the rights of the men.

The Wages of Sin.

ALLEGHTOWN, Pa., July 9.—Charles A. Knauss, aged 18, shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Edwin Diefenderfer, aged 26, at midnight last night, then shot and instantly killed himself in Knauss' father's paint shop, to which Knauss had called Mrs. Diefenderfer. They had been intimate for two years. Mrs. Diefenderfer was trying to break up Knauss' infatuation and refused to elope with him, which made him desperate. Knauss was single. Mrs. Diefenderfer has a husband and two children, one of whom is sick with scarlet fever.

Broker Commits Suicide.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 9.—S. W. Paine, a commission broker, with an office in this city, committed suicide at Rhoads Hotel, Harvey's Lake, at an early hour this morning. He retired early last evening apparently in the best of spirits. About 2 o'clock this morning the other guests at the hotel were awakened by two pistol shots. The door of Paine's room was broken in and he was found lying dead on the floor with a bullet hole in his right temple. The coroner was at once notified. The dead broker was about 41 years of age, and came here from New York about six years ago.
